Orangery – Charlottenburg Palace

Magnificent and majestic, the Orangery affords visitors all of the amenities and comforts of the present age. A perfect example of the pomp and flair of a bygone era, Charlottenburg Palace’s Orangery used to house a valuable collection of citrus trees. A baroque jewel, it didn’t take long for the aristocracy to recognise its potential for hosting festive celebrations. Enchant your guests in the unsurpassed ambience of this royal residence – after all, it was good enough for the King of Prussia! Be it a cocktail reception, gala dinner or an event of discerning distinction, the Orangery affords the exclusivity you’d expect.
